

Our Mission

The Episcopal Church of the Epiphany is an inclusive community called to seek and follow Jesus Christ. We welcome all people in the Eucharistic fellowship of Christ's Body. We receive strength and encouragement at the common table to carry out Christ's work of reconciliation in our broken world. Nourished by worship and witness, learning and teaching,

Dear Friends,

I find myself at the end of a two year journey with you, with great joy for our time together and immense sadness that my weekly participation as your seminarian has come to a close.

Change is a constant, but more than that it is part of the calling of the Christian life. Roberta Bondi, in her short and marvelous book To Love as God Loves points out that pagan philosophers - the heirs of Aristotle and Plato - believed that human beings cannot be perfect in the way God is perfect because perfection must be unchanging, static, complete. These philosophers viewed the unpredictable ups and downs - the changes inherent in life - as bad.

Gregory of Nyssa, a fourth century Christian writer, said just the opposite. "For this is truly perfection: never to stop growing towards what is better and never placing any limit on perfection." Challenging our own 21st century notions about change, Nyssa says that we are ever stretching towards God through change, and that perfection - rather than arrival at a stationary end point - is about continuous movement. Our goal is to love as God loves, and because God's love is without limits we necessarily will be in constant movement as we stretch towards a goal that we will never reach. God calls the Christian to a life of change and growth: it is the way God created us and the world. The fact that change is required for this movement and the acknowledgment that we can never arrive at a destination, is actually a cause for celebration instead of despair, because it grows out of our likeness to God.

The difficulty, of course, is that this movement in our lives can be painful when it takes us away from people we love. It is painful for me to say goodbye to you, the people of the Church of the Epiphany, who have been such an important part of my journey towards God's love. You have helped me learn to preach, to pray, and to be present with you in your lives of faith. You have giggled with me during my many liturgical missteps and have supported me in my attempts at singing in public (Oy!). You warmly welcomed me at a time when Epiphany was going through many staff and growth changes - when one more new person behind the altar could have been too much. Thank you.

As we move out of the Easter Season and towards Pentecost, it is meaningful to reflect on the wildness of the Holy Spirit's presence in our lives, pushing us towards love of God, teaching us love of self and neighbor in ways that make our lives unpredictable and challenging. The unpredictability of life and the changes that are inherent in our lives can be cause for growth in closeness to God and can allow us to make choices that may look like foolishness to the rest of the world. As my family and I begin this next leg of our journey into an unknown future, one which feels a little wild and foolish, we ask that you keep us in your prayers, as we will you.

With love and affection,

Liz Schellingerhoudt, Deacon and Seminarian

Epiphany's Art Ministry welcomes Dr. Craig A. Ryder for May

Here is what he writes in the first person:

I started painting in my junior year of high school. I had taken "art" in the eighth grade but it was an overview of how art was used in everyday living and commerce—not "how to paint." My early painting was self taught using oil paints and improved with time to the early oil paintings displayed here today. I continued painting through college. Medical school, internship and residency training, and two years in the U.S. Public Health Service did not leave time to paint.

In the mid 70's my medical practice was established enough to let me take painting lessons from a local Suffolk, Virginia, artist. These weekly lessons lasted for about 6 months, and after that I continued with the weekly class to make sure I kept at it.

My early paintings were all oil but when I returned to painting in the 70's the medium was now acrylic. I like oil painting better - it doesn't dry quickly and it allows the painter gradation of color, e.g., dark blue sky to light blue as it gets to the horizon. As I painted with acrylic paints my technique improved to what you see here. My acrylic painting continued to the early 90's. I have not painted since that time.

Most paintings are from photographs—black and white and color. Subject material has been from nature. We lived near the Outer Banks of North Carolina and that has been the inspiration for several paintings. Some of the "dark" paintings were something different to do. I have sold some paintings (does that make me professional?) but most have gone to family.

Dr. Craig Ryder is the spouse of assisting priest, Rev. Barbara Ryder.

Parish Retreat - October 23-25, 2009

By Ann Gonter

Registration will soon begin for our Annual Parish Retreat to beautiful Kanuga Conference Center near Hendersonville, North Carolina (about 3 hours from Atlanta). Please reserve this date on your calendar now as a not-to-be-missed parish event. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend. Scholarships are available by speaking to the Rector, Benno Pattison.

This year's program stands to be terrific as always. Traditions you can count on like the Rector's Spiritual Discussion and Nature Hike will continue. Last year we saw new additions to include a Medieval Mystery Dinner, a Table Tennis Tournament, and a photography class. The best way to share the news of this event is to let some of the participants tell you themselves. Here are some of the comments from the evaluation of last year's retreat:

- "Spiritual Discussion—I really enjoyed the different stories that the discussion participants relayed, and enjoyed Benno's words as well. It was a thought-provoking discussion."
- "Ping Pong Tournament: As a single person without kids, it gave me an opportunity to meet some of the younger folks and have fun with them. Also, reminded me I need to work on my hand/eye coordination :)"
- "Hike to Eagle Rock—I love hiking and being outdoors, and the gorgeous fall color that weekend made the hike and the view from the top breathtaking, and I enjoyed talking with the other hikers; I met some new folks! "
- "Sunday morning Eucharist. Great because we were all together, it was beautiful, and it was an intimate worship"
- "Medieval Murder Mystery Dinner—The dinner was so much fun, and I was able to meet a lot of new folks through the game as we had to talk to each other and interact."
- "Saturday night in Cabin 39: So much laughter. Reminded me of being at a family reunion...with family that actually enjoys each other."
- "I loved each of the worship services. Each of them provided their own sense of being with God."

- "All (worship) areas were beautiful! I was thrilled that we had a service in the Chapel of Transfiguration. St. Francis Chapel was amazing. What a place to feel God's presence."
- "This was my first parish retreat with Epiphany and my first trip to Kanuga and I just loved it all! The community that I felt I was able to build at the retreat with existing friends and new folks alike is invaluable to me as a member of Epiphany...I feel even more a part of the family of this parish than ever!!"

The Kanuga Parish Retreat is open to all at Epiphany, newcomers and long-time members. Full and partial scholarships are available and may be obtained by speaking to the Rector, Benno Pattison at rector@epiphany.org or 404.373.8773. Please do not allow cost to deter you from attending this very special parish event.

If you aren't able to join us this year, perhaps you will consider making a donation to the Kanuga Scholarship Fund. This fund assists parishioners with the financial expenses of registration. It is a lovely way to commemorate memories of Epiphany Retreats past. Please see David Draper at davidat145@aol.com or 404.371.9440.

Please feel free to email or call Ann Gonter with any additional questions at annraines@comcast.net or 678.575.1563.

We look forward to seeing you in Kanuga in October!

Table Tennis

For those Epiphanyites who want to get ready for the table tennis tournament at Kanuga (or anyone wishing to improve their game), there is "free play" every Tuesday night from 7-10 p.m. at the Decatur Gym (231 Sycamore St.-next to the library). For further information contact Charlie Slater at (404) 835-2798 or charlie.slater@yahoo.com.

Join the Training Group

By Nisa Sommers

It is time for our second season of the ET Training Group! Our summer season started May 2 and ends Saturday, August 1. Spread the Word! The group will meet at 8:00 a.m. at Church of the Epiphany, 2089 Ponce de Leon Avenue, NE, Atlanta, GA 30307 in the church courtyard. Most of our training takes place on streets, paths and trails close to Epiphany. Occasionally we will branch out to Stone Mountain and other in-town parks for running, walking, hiking and biking workouts.

This season's focus is on short races—5K/10K, short trail runs, day hikes, swimming, cycling and triathlon training. We will also be working consistently on anatomical core strengthening. We have several people already training for the Peachtree Road Race and several people training for triathlons. We also have a great group of walkers! If you have a specific race or fitness goal in mind please let me know during the first couple weeks of training. Our group services all ages (8-82 yrs!). Kids and teens must be accompanied by a parent who will run, walk, bike, hike, etc. with them. Our group members are weekend athletes, beginning -> advanced walkers, intermediate -> advanced runners, and competitive athletes. We focus on health, fitness and motivation first and then add a competitive element for those interested in competing in age group competition!

Our winter season (Dec 08-March 09) was a huge success! We graduated 8 ING Marathon and Half-Marathon runners and our 5K/10K group learned how to build a good fitness base and participated in area races like the Atlanta Women's 5K.

We welcome all new comers! Our group offers nutrition, training advice, and great group camaraderie. If you have always wanted to be a part of a fun /fitness training group, now is the time! There is no fee for the training but consistent attendance (as much as possible allowing for summer travel, illness, etc.) is required as a promise to you and your group members.

If you have questions please contact me at 404.408.6995 or nisasommers@yahoo.com
